

ANDREAS GIDLUND QUARTET / PRESS PLAY PLEASE

"A NEW BAND THAT INCORPORATES MUCH OF THE NEW POWER OF SWEDISH JAZZ."

▶ PRESSRELEASE

"PRESS PLAY PLEASE" is Andreas Gidlund Quartet's third album since the start in 2000. The recording was done during two days in January when a terrible hurricane passed over the west of Sweden.

The result was an album that doesn't claim to deny the influences of the so called tradition, but that cherish great ambitions to convey the personal expressions of four musicians. Sparkling energy packed in eight original tracks and one cover song.

The composing is represented by Gidlund and Kallerdahl, but also a version of Duke Ellington's "In a sentimental mood" is recorded on the album. The idea with the music is to use a traditional language that consciously breaches dialectally in forms, times and sounds.

"PRESS PLAY PLEASE" was released September 19 with a party concert on "Klara kök och bar" in Göteborg.

Enjoy, and press play please!

Andreas Gidlund – saxophones
